

SINGAPORE MEDIATION CENTRE MEDIATION SERVICE

FAMILY MEDIATION SCHEME
THE MEDIATION PROCEDURE

1 The Mediation Process

- 1.1 The mediation process for the Family Mediation Scheme conducted by the Singapore Mediation Centre (SMC) is to be governed by this Mediation Procedure.
- 1.2 Parties seeking to mediate their dispute may initiate the same by sending the completed Request for Mediation form found in Annex A to SMC.
- 1.3 Where not all the parties to a dispute have initiated mediation, SMC will:
- (a) within fourteen (14) days from the date of request contact the remaining parties to persuade them to participate in the mediation process; and
  - (b) within twenty-one (21) days from the date of request inform all parties whether mediation can proceed.
- 1.4 The mediation process will involve the parties, their representatives and/or advisors (if any) and the Mediator(s). The mediation will be conducted in confidence, and all communications will be on a 'without prejudice' basis.

2 Mediation Agreement

- 2.1 Before mediation is carried out, the parties will enter into an agreement (the Mediation Agreement) based on the Model Mediation Agreement in Annex B in relation to the conduct of the mediation. For the avoidance of doubt, the Mediation Agreement may take the form of an electronic record and be signed in counterparts.

3 The Parties

- 3.1 Generally, the parties to the dispute should attend the mediation in person. The parties will supply SMC and the Mediator(s), within such time as SMC may specify, the names of their representatives and/or advisors attending the mediation.
- 3.2 The Mediator(s) will determine the steps to be taken during the mediation proceedings after consultation with the parties. The parties will be deemed, upon signing the Mediation Agreement, to have accepted and will be bound by the terms of this Procedure.

4 The Mediator

- 4.1 Upon the parties' entry into the Mediation Agreement, SMC will appoint a person or several persons to act as the Mediator(s).

SMC Mediation Service
Family Mediation Scheme
Mediation Procedure

- 4.2 SMC, in the selection, will choose a person who, in its view, will be best placed to serve as the Mediator. In the event that any of the parties has any valid reasons to object to a choice, SMC will appoint another person.
- 4.3 A person selected as a Mediator will disclose any circumstances likely to create an impression of bias or prevent him from acting promptly. SMC, upon receipt of such disclosure, will appoint another person as a Mediator, unless the parties decide otherwise.
- 4.4 The Mediator:
- (a) will prepare himself appropriately before the commencement of mediation;
  - (b) will abide by the terms of the Mediation Agreement and the Code of Conduct in Annex C;
  - (c) may assist the parties in the drawing up of any written settlement agreement; and
  - (d) will, in general, facilitate negotiations between the parties and steer the direction of the discussion with the aim of finding a mutually acceptable solution.

Unless expressly requested by all the parties involved, the Mediator(s) will not make any ruling/finding with respect to the dispute.

- 4.5 The Mediator(s) (or any member of his firm or company) should not act for any of the parties at any time in connection with the subject matter of the mediation. The Mediator(s) and SMC are not agents of, or acting in any capacity for, any of the parties. The Mediator(s) is not an agent of SMC.

5 SMC

- 5.1 SMC will make the necessary arrangements for the mediation, including:
- (a) appointing the Mediator(s);
  - (b) organising a venue and assigning a date for the mediation;
  - (c) organising an exchange of summaries of cases and documents; and
  - (d) providing general administrative support.

- 5.2 SMC may assist in drawing up the Mediation Agreement.

6 Exchange of Information

- 6.1 At least five (5) days before the mediation, the parties will provide each other, the Mediator(s) and SMC the following:

SMC Mediation Service

6.3 The parties should try to agree to the maximum number of pages to be contained in their respective Summaries and on the maximum number of pages of supporting documents to be submitted. The parties should also try to agree on a joint set of documents.

6.4 Where a Summary is submitted in the form of an electronic record, it must not exceed 5 MB in file size.

6.5 Where a document (other than a Summary) is submitted in the form of an electronic record, it must not exceed 5 MB in file.

7 The Mediation

7.1 The mediation will be conducted in confidence, and no transcript or formal record will be made. No audio-visual recording will be made of the proceedings. Only the Mediator(s), the parties and/or their representatives and/or advisors will be permitted to be present during the mediation.

7.2 All communications made in the mediation, including information disclosed and views expressed, are made on a strictly 'without prejudice' basis and shall not be used in any proceedings.

7.3 The Mediator(s) may obtain expert advice in technical matters with the consent of the parties, who shall bear the expenses incurred.

7.4 The Mediator(s) may conduct joint meetings with all or separate meetings with each of the parties, whether before or during the mediation.

7.5 In the event that no settlement is reached, and at the request of all parties and if the Mediator(s) agrees, the Mediator(s) will produce a non-binding written recommendation of the terms of settlement. Such a recommendation will only be the Mediator's own assessment. Except with the consent of the Mediator(s) and of all parties, it shall not be used in any proceeding of whatever nature.

8 Settlement Agreement

8.1 No settlement reached in the mediation will be binding until it has been reduced to writing and signed by or on behalf of the parties.

8.2 For avoidance of doubt, a settlement that has been reduced to writing may take the form of an electronic record.

8.3 For avoidance of doubt, where a settlement reduced to writing takes the form of an electronic record, it may be signed by applying electronic signatures.

- 11.2 All documents (including anything stored electronically) or any other information produced for, or arising in relation to, the mediation will be privileged, and will not be admissible as evidence or discoverable in any proceedings connected with the dispute unless such documents would have in any event been admissible or discoverable.
- 11.3 The parties will not call the Mediator(s) or SMC (or any employee, officer or representative) as a witness, consultant, arbitrator or expert in any proceedings in relation to the dispute.
