

Amendments to the Security of Payment Act – Courts Decisions and Emerging Issues

About the Seminar

The speakers will undertake an overview of the latest court decisions in 2020 and examine some of the issues which have emerged in adjudications following the 2019 amendments to the Security of Payment Act

Important Note

This is a mandatory seminar for all SMC adjudicators. Adjudicators who did not attend the earlier seminars held in March 2019 are required to attend this seminar. Adjudicators are to take note that attendance at this seminar will be a pre-condition for applying for a new term of appointment.

Speakers

EDWIN LEE is one of the founding partners of Eldan Law LLP. Practising for more than 25 years, he is recognised by the Singapore Academy of Law as a Senior Specialist in Construction Law. He is also cited as a leading Singapore construction law practitioner in Euromoney's Guide to the World's Leading Construction Lawyers (2017). The Chambers Asia-Pacific Guide 2017 has cited him as "an authority on domestic construction adjudications". Edwin is a member of the Construction Adjudicator Accreditation Committee, which oversees the selection and assessment of adjudicators. He has argued many of the landmark Court of Appeal cases on construction law, and on adjudications. He co-authored the Law Reform Committee report on amending the Security of Payment Act. Edwin is also an Adjunct Associate Professor with the National University of Singapore, Adjunct Assistant Professor with the Singapore University of Technology and Design, and a trainer for the BCA on Construction Law. He is also the Construction Law editor for the Singapore Academy of Law's online journal SAL Practitioner, and author of the book Building Contract Law in Singapore (2016, 3rd Edition).

CHRISTOPHER CHUAH heads the Infrastructure, Construction & Engineering Practice and is a Partner in the International Arbitration, China and Myanmar Practices. In January 2018, Christopher was amongst the inaugural batch of select practitioners to be appointed Senior Accredited Specialist in Building and Construction Law by the Singapore Academy of Law with many years of experience in adjudication. He was amongst the first batch of adjudicators to be accredited under the SOP Act and a member of the Construction Adjudication Accreditation Committee and co-editor of the Singapore Construction Adjudication Review. Christopher has also acted as leading counsel in many landmark construction cases. He is also an adjunct Professor in Construction Law at the Law Faculty of the National University of Singapore.
