SMALL CASE COMMERCIAL MEDIATION SCHEME
MEDIATION PROCEDURE

1 The Mediation Process

- 1.1 The mediation process for the Small Case Commercial Mediation Scheme (“Scheme”) conducted by the Singapore Mediation Centre (“SMC”) is to be governed by this Mediation Procedure.
- 1.2 Parties seeking to mediate their dispute shall elect to initiate the same by sending the completed Request for Mediation form found in Annex A to SMC for a mediation at a venue organised by SMC.
- 1.3 Where not all the parties to a dispute have initiated mediation, SMC shall:
- (a) within fourteen (14) days from the date of request contact the remaining parties to persuade them to participate in the mediation process; and
 - (b) after twenty-one (21) days from the date of request, if parties are still unable to arrive at a date for mediation, parties agree to endeavour in good faith to set down for mediation within a reasonable time thereafter, not exceeding 6 months from the date of request.
- 1.4 The mediation process shall involve the parties, their representative(s) and/or advisor(s) (if any) and the Mediator(s). The mediation shall be conducted in confidence, and all communications shall be on a ‘without prejudice’ basis.

2 Agreement to Mediate

- 2.1 Before mediation is carried out, the parties and the Mediator(s) shall enter into an agreement (the “Agreement to Mediate”) based on the Model Agreement to Mediate in Annex B in relation to the conduct of the mediation. For the avoidance of doubt, the Agreement to Mediate may take the form of an electronic record and may be signed in counterparts.

3 The Parties

- 3.1 Generally, individuals should attend the mediation in person. In the case of corporate entities, the parties may appoint representative(s) to act for them at the mediation. The parties shall confer upon their representative(s) the necessary authority to settle the dispute. The parties shall provide SMC and the Mediator(s), within such time as SMC may specify, the names of their representative(s) and/or advisor(s) attending the mediation.

SMC Small Case Commercial Mediation Scheme
Mediation Procedure

3.2 The Mediator(s) shall determine the steps to be taken during the mediation proceedings after consultation with the parties. The parties shall be deemed, upon signing the Agreement to Mediate, to have accepted and shall be bound by the terms of this Procedure.

4 The Mediator

4.1 Upon the parties' acceptance to participate in the mediation process, SMC shall appoint a person or several persons to act as the Mediator(s).

4.2 SMC, in the selection, shall choose a person who, in its view, shall be best placed to serve as the Mediator. In the event that any of the parties has any valid reasons to object to a choice, SMC shall appoint another person.

4.3 A person selected as a Mediator shall disclose any circumstances likely to create an impression of bias or prevent him from acting promptly. SMC, upon receipt of such disclosure, shall appoint another person as a Mediator, unless the parties decide otherwise.

4.4 The Mediator:

- (a) shall prepare himself appropriately before the commencement of mediation;
- (b) shall abide by the terms of the Agreement to Mediate and the Code of Conduct in Annex C;
- (c) may assist the parties in the drawing up of any written settlement agreement; and
- (d) shall, in general, facilitate negotiations between the parties and steer the direction of the discussion with the aim of finding a mutually acceptable solution.

Unless expressly requested by all the parties involved, the Mediator(s) shall not make any ruling/finding with respect to the dispute.

4.5 The Mediator(s) (or any member of his firm or company) should not act for any of the parties at any time in connection with the subject matter of the mediation. The Mediator(s) and SMC are not agents of, or acting in any capacity for, any of the parties. The Mediator(s) is not an agent of SMC.

5 SMC

5.1 SMC shall make the necessary arrangements for the mediation, including but not limited to:

- (a) appointing the Mediator(s);
- (b) organising a venue and assigning a date for the mediation;

SMC Small Case Commercial Mediation Scheme
Mediation Procedure

- (c) organising an exchange of summaries of cases and documents; and/or
- (d) providing general administrative support.

5.2 SMC may assist in drawing up the Agreement to Mediate.

6 Exchange of Information

6.1 At least ten (10) days before the mediation, the parties shall provide each other, the Mediator(s) and SMC the following:

- (a) a concise summary (Summary) stating its case; and
- (b) copies of all documents referred to in the Summary that the party wishes to rely on at the mediation.

6.2 Each party may also convey to the Mediator(s) and SMC information which it does not want to disclose to the other party(s). These instructions must be in writing.

6.3 The parties should try to agree to the maximum number of pages to be contained in their respective Summaries and on the maximum number of pages of supporting documents to be submitted. The parties should also try to agree on a joint set of documents.

6.4 Where a Summary is submitted in the form of an electronic record, it must not exceed 20 MB in file size. Where a document (other than a Summary) is submitted in the form of an electronic record, it must not exceed 20 MB in file.

7 The Mediation

7.1 The mediation shall be conducted in confidence, and no transcript or formal record shall be retained. No audio-visual recording shall be made of the proceedings. Only the Mediator(s), the parties and/or their representatives and/or advisors shall be permitted to be present during the mediation.

7.2 All communications made in the mediation, including information disclosed and views expressed, are made on a strictly “without prejudice” basis and shall not be used in any proceedings.

7.3 The Mediator(s) may obtain expert advice in technical matters with the consent of the parties, who shall bear the expenses incurred. The Mediator(s) may conduct joint meetings with all or separate meetings with each of the parties, whether before or during the mediation.

7.5 In the event that no settlement is reached, and at the request of all parties and if the Mediator(s) agrees, the Mediator(s) may produce a non-binding written recommendation of the terms of settlement. Such a recommendation shall only be the Mediator's own assessment. Except with the consent of the Mediator(s) and of all parties, it shall not be used in any proceeding of whatever nature.

- 7.6 For the avoidance of doubt, the meaning of "mediation" includes the definition set out in Section 3 of the Mediation Act 2017 (No. 1 of 2017) ("the Mediation Act 2017")

- 8.1 No settlement reached in the mediation shall be binding until it has been reduced to writing and signed by or on behalf of the parties.
- 8.2 For avoidance of doubt, a settlement that has been reduced to writing may take the form of an electronic record.
- 8.3 For avoidance of doubt, where a settlement reduced to writing takes the form of an electronic record, it may be signed by applying electronic signatures.
- 8.4 The settlement agreement may be recorded as an order of court pursuant to Section 12 of the Mediation Act 2017

9 Termination

- 9.1 Any of the parties may withdraw from the mediation at any time by giving notice of withdrawal in writing to SMC, the Mediator(s) and the other party(s).
- 9.2 The mediation shall terminate when:
- (a) a party withdraws from the mediation;
 - (b) a written settlement agreement is signed by the Parties;
 - (c) the Mediator(s) decides that continued mediation is unlikely to result in settlement;
 - (d) the Mediator(s) decides that he should withdraw from the mediation for any of the reasons stated in the Code of Conduct; or
 - (e) no settlement is reached at the end of one (1) day of mediation or any such longer period which shall be mutually agreed by all Parties and the Mediator(s).

10 Stay of Proceedings

- 10.1 Unless the parties otherwise agree, the mediation shall not prevent the commencement of any suit or arbitration.
- 10.2 Where legal proceedings have already been commenced, the mediation shall not act as a stay of such proceedings unless the Court or arbitral tribunal, as the case may be, orders otherwise.

11 Confidentiality

- 11.1 The rules contained in this section below are to be read in conjunction with the Mediation Act 2017, and in particular, Sections 9, 10 & 11 therein.

 - (d) the fact that another party had or had not been willing to accept a proposal for settlement made by the Mediator(s); and
 - (e) all information (whether oral or in writing) produced for or arising in relation to the mediation, including any settlement agreement, except as directly necessary to implement and enforce any such settlement agreement.
- 11.3 All documents (including anything stored electronically) and/or any other information produced for, or arising in relation to, or following from the mediation shall not be discoverable in any proceedings connected with the dispute.
- 11.4 The parties shall not call the Mediator(s) or SMC (or any employee, officer or representative) as a witness, consultant, arbitrator or expert in any proceedings in relation to the dispute.
