- 27.2 Where legal proceedings (or arbitration where applicable) have already been commenced, the Mediation shall not operate as a stay of such proceedings (or arbitration where applicable) unless a court (or arbitral tribunal where applicable) orders otherwise.

Subject always to such order and such agreement, where SMC has extended such a period or date referred to in a Rule, that Rule shall apply as if the period or date referred to in that Rule is replaced by the period or date so extended by SMC.

 - (d) the Mediator terminating the mediation session without a settlement being reached, and without the Parties indicating that they wish to continue with the Mediation in another mediation session.
- 30.2 Notwithstanding the termination of the Mediation, SMC shall be entitled to the fees and charges as prescribed in the Fee Schedule and the Mediator to his fee. If such fees and charges (including the Mediator's fee) have not already become due prior to the termination, they shall become due and payable upon such termination.
